SINGAPORE TRAMWAYS.

EXTENSIVE SHARE SALES TO HONGKONG.

An Old Eastern Resident writes to the China Express and Telegraph (London):
—It occurs to me that the enclosed copy of an editorial taken from Truth may be of considerable interest to your Eastern readers, likewise to readers resident in Britain who are interested in Eastern matters.

The price of the 5s. shares has been rushed up in the past few weeks from round 2s. 6d. to their present price. Financial circles here report that large numbers of the shares are being sold by London interests to people in the East, particularly to Hongkong; and in view of the price at which they are being bought, opinion of those close to the Company is that this can only be due to the facts of the reorganisation scheme not being properly known to buyers, while the possibility of misleading information having been distributed by interested parties is also hinted at.

Something of the kind is obvious when it is seen that, at the present price of the 5s. shares, the equivalent price of 40 new 5s. shares works out at £144, whereas each £100 debenture stock, now selling round 51, also gets 40 new 5s. ordinary shares plus 270 in new 7 per cent. Cumulative Preference Stock. The disparity is most striking, and if the Eastern buying continues it certainly looks as though the buyers may lose very substantially.

I send the information as an old Eastern resident, knowing from somewhat sad experience how losses can be caused people in distant places through lack of information.

[Enclosure.]

Singapore Electric Tramways.—The 5s. ordinary shares of the Singapore Electric Tramways, which formerly stood at something less than half-a-crown each, had a sharp rise lately, and on Monday last were dealt in at 5s. The movement looks like a market "rig," and apparently is not justified by the re-organisation scheme lately passed. Under this scheme holders of 330 of the old 5s. shares get forty new 5s. ordinary shares, and at the price lately touched by the old shares forty new shares would be worth £32, each—that is, £144 the lot. But each £100 of the 5 p.c. debentures also gets forty new ordinary shares of £1 each, yet the present market quotation of these debentures is only 51. If there is any justification for the old ordinary shares standing at 5s. or 5s. each, there is certainly no justification for the 5 p.c. debentures standing at only about 51, especially as they also get 270 of 7 p.c. preference shares under the above scheme.

That the 5s. ordinary shares are not worth anything like the recent price appears to be borne out by the fact that under the re-organisation scheme one-half of the profits must go to the new management before anything can accrue to the reference or ordinary shareholders. I think the movement affords an excellent opportunity for holders to get out. No dividend has been paid on the shares since 1917.—Truth London, July 23rd, 1924, page 165.

THE COAL TRADE OF HONGKONG.

Mr. Lekoy Webber, U.S. Consul in a recent report says:—

Coal imports—about 62 per cent. of which were bituminous—into Hongkong for the year 1923 amounted to 1,405,491 tons, as compared with 1,068,175 tons in 1922 and 1,175,571 tons in 1921. About 33 per cent. of the bituminous coal comes from Japan, 21 per cent. from Formosa and adjacent islands, and the remainder from North China, Manchuria, South Africa, and Borneo. All of the anthracite coal comes from French Indo-China, with the exception of about 10 per cent. which is supplied by Great Britain for the use of the British Navy. About 25 per cent. of the local coal imports are re-exported to near-by ports for use by small river steamers, and launches and by manufacturing plants.

Consumption of coal by the river steamers has decreased. This has been offset, however, by the increase in the demands by the coastal steamers and the manufacturing industries of Hongkong and Canton. Although fair stocks are always maintained at Hongkong, very little bunkering is done at this port by ocean steamers, which, as a rule, coal at Japanese or North China ports at a cheaper price.

TRADE UNION SLUMP.

2 MILLION MEMBERS LOST IN TWO YEARS.

The membership of registered trade unions of Great Britain, which reached nearly 7,000,000 in 1920, fell to 4,500,000 in 1922, according to a report just issued by the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies, covering the year 1922.

Their funds still exceeded £10,000,000. During 1922 they expended more than £3,000,000 in unemployment benefit, which, says the Chief Registrar, following on the £15,000,000 expended in the preceding year, serves as some indication of the extent of trade depression.

The amount disbursed in dispute benefit was smaller than in any year since the war.

The Registrar observes that, as a result of misunderstanding, in co-operation of two cases money belonging to general funds were applied to the furtherance of political objects, but such sums will be refunded.

A new departure, so far as trade unions are concerned, was the adoption by one union of a scheme of collective life insurance of its members with an insurance society.

COTTON MILL FINANCE.

SIR W. HOPWOOD ON DEALS WITH SIR J. LEIGH.

The public examination in bankruptcy took place at Oldham recently of Sir William Hopwood, of Shaw, near Oldham, who had a prominent part in the cotton boom of 1919-1920.

He said that he was assisted in his purchases of cotton mills by Sir John Leigh, now companies being formed to pay for the shares. He generally received £10,000 for his share in each transaction. Some of the profits Sir John Leigh received were: Gen Mill, £20,000; Irwell Bank, £241,000; Junction Company, £28,000; Lark Mill, £22,000.

The reason for his failure was guaranteeing bank overdrafts for cotton mills and depreciation in the value of shares in the mills, owing to trade depression. The examination was adjourned until October 17th.

THE CORONET.

Local cinema-goers have their last opportunity this evening of seeing the great adventure film "To Have and to Hold" which has been drawing interested audiences to the Coronet Theatre during the past few days.

WORLD THEATRE.

There's a chuckle for the glum, and laughter in plenty for the light-hearted in "Broadway or Bust," the new Hoot Gibson comedy at the World Theatre. The story, written by Edward Sedgwick, who directed the picture, and Raymond L. Schrock, reflects the experiences of a pair of cowboys who crave to see Broadway and whose dreams were fulfilled by one of them "coming into a sudden fortune." Hoot dominates the film as Dave Holles, the cowboy who seizes a ranch for a fortune. There's a neat love story played by Ruth Dwyer. The kick of the film is the scene in which the boys ride up to the "Fix" hotel on horseback and engage a suite of rooms for themselves and their saddle horses. The hotel's publicity man plays the matter heavily, and the boys are invited out with the Blue Book squadron. Gibson is fast taking his place among the screen's highest rate comedians, scoring hit after hit in the comedy type of film.

THE CHINA ASSOCIATION. THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

ANNUAL MEETING IN LONDON.

The annual meeting of the China Association was held in the offices of the P. and O. Steam Navigation Co. Ltd., 122, Leadenhall Street, London, E.C.3, on July 23rd. Mr. David Landale, chairman of the Association, presided, and amongst those present were the Rt. Hon. Sir John Jordan, P.C., G.C.M.G., etc., Lt.-Gen. Sir George Macdonogh, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., etc., Sir George Stewart, K.B.E., Sir James H. Stewart-Lochhart, K.C.M.G., Major R. B. Denny, Dr. O. Marriott and Messrs. F. Anderson, H. H. Joseph, D. C. Rutherford, W. Adams, Oram, T. H. Whitehead, E. A. Stanton, F. Salinger, L. N. Lee, J. R. Michael, S. H. Michael, A. M. Townsend, H. J. Stockton, Byron Brennan, C.M.G., H. G. Simms, W. G. Pratt, H. D. C. Jones, R. H. Hill, G. A. Richardson, W. Fisher, H. W. Dally, George B. Dodwell, O. T. Cousins, W. B. Kennett, W. N. Elcome, Robert Carr, H. A. J. Murray, J. S. Haskell, H. A. Ottewill, L. A. Dent, and H. C. Wilcox, Secretary.

The secretary (Mr. H. C. Wilcox) having read the notice convening the meeting.

The CHAIRMAN said: Gentlemen—The report and accounts have been in your hands for some days, and with your permission I will take them as read. Your Committee regret that they are unable to record any improvement in the political situation in China. No steps, as far as we know, are being taken by the three military leaders to compose their differences and establish a Central Government. Trade generally has been much hampered by piracy and the general unrest in the country. That so large a volume of business is transacted in spite of the existing conditions speaks volumes for the energy and perseverance of Chinese traders, and forebodes what might be done under more favourable circumstances.

In addressing you last year I pointed out that I believed that an offer by the Great Powers to mediate would be welcome. Since then we have had more than one instance of a European country being set upon its feet by the assistance of the League of Nations, but these results have been attained by the acceptance of the advice given in the spirit in which it was offered. It is to be hoped that the Great Powers concerned will before long turn their attention to China, for I know of no larger or more promising field in which to find employment for the many factories of this country. But in advancing mediation on the part of the Powers in order to hasten the establishment of a Central Government in China it is necessary to sound a note of warning. We do not think that the time has come for any modification of the Treaties under which foreigners reside in China and under which foreign trade is carried on in that country.

Our views upon extra-territoriality are clearly set out in the report, and I cannot too strongly emphasise the concluding paragraph, which reads: "If China wishes to modify her present international status, her first duty is to put her house in order, and then, following the example of the neighbouring Empire of Japan, to undergo a long course of preparation, not merely in remodelling her legislation, but in training officials who can be trusted to have it honestly enforced."

CROWN LEASES.

As you will rather from the report, an unfortunate position has been reached in the negotiations for the renewal of Crown leases in certain Treaty Ports. We were led to believe that the officials at the Foreign Office recognised that H.M. Government, in acquiring the original lease of the land from the Chinese Government, were merely acting in a fiduciary capacity in the interests of those who wished to acquire land for the purposes of the conduct of their business. Since the accession of Mr. MacDonald's Government to power, however, a decision has been arrived at that full advantage should be taken of the wording of the present Crown leases, and as large a sum as possible be extracted from the lot holders for renewal of their leases, and whereas the British Government originally assisted traders to establish themselves at the Treaty Ports in order to facilitate their business, a considerable portion of which was the marketing of British goods, the Government of to-day is by this recent decision greatly hampering the expansion of such business. In the House of Commons, on July 18th, Mr. Jowett, the First Commissioner of Works, in replying to Mr. Foot Mitchell, stated that 84 per cent. of the leaseholders had expressed their willingness to accept the new terms, that 29 per cent. had said nothing, and that only 63 per cent. were opposed. Evidently aware from what source Mr. Jowett obtained this information, but we telegraphed to Tientsin to inquire how the matter stood, because at the instance chiefly of the Tientsin Committee we have been actively negotiating with the Foreign Office in this matter. The reply that has been received this morning from Tientsin reads as follows: "Referring to your telegram of 17th, estimate that Tientsin alone represents fully 30 per cent. total value involved; as far as we can ascertain only one application for renewal made from here, remainder opposed to it. With regard to Hankow, their interests equally large; they have informed us nobody has accepted, therefore we estimate Tientsin and Hankow alone represents 60 per cent. dissentients."

I do not think that many of the lot holders in the smaller ports have agreed to the terms offered by the Government, though one or two have done so in order to enable them to rebuild for urgent reasons. It would appear as though Mr. Jowett has transposed the figures, but as it is to be hoped that eventually some reasonable terms of renewal of these leases will be offered.

TRADE MARKS.

The position as regards the registration of trade marks in China is also a very unsatisfactory one. The Chinese Government have promulgated a law which the British Government is unable to recognise until some essential safeguards are introduced. The chief objections to the law as it stands are that the provisions for dealing with the settlement of disputes encroach upon our extra-territorial rights under existing treaties, also that registration by a Bureau which is not properly equipped with expert knowledge would afford little if any protection. The fees are very high, and in time to come are apt to lead to registration for revenue. It is much to be regretted that the Chinese Government does not place the registration of trade marks under the supervision of the Inspector-General of Customs, as agreed under the Mackay Treaty.

The accounts have been audited by Mr. Sidinger, and, I think, require no explanation. Our subscriptions did not quite cover our expenses, and further contributions will be welcome. With these remarks, gentlemen, I beg to propose the adoption of the report and accounts.

Mr. H. H. Joseph: I have much pleasure in seconding the resolution that the report and accounts be adopted. It does not require any comment from me, because the Chairman has very fully put before you the position in which the Society now finds itself.

The resolution was carried unanimously without further comment.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT AND COMMITTEE.

The CHAIRMAN: The next business is the election of a President for the ensuing year, and I am glad to say that Sir John Jordan has agreed to act as President for another year. (Applause.) His great knowledge of China, and the interest he takes in all matters that come before the Committee are of great value to the Association, and I am quite sure that you will unanimously elect him again. (Applause.)

Mr. F. Anderson: It is merely a formality, but I have great pleasure in seconding this.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN: The next business is the election of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Hon. Treasurer.

Mr. F. Anderson: I have very much pleasure in proposing the election of the following members as Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Hon. Treasurer for the year—that Mr. L. N. Lee be elected as Chairman of the Association for the ensuing year. (Applause.) I am glad to see from the reception you have given to his name that you are of the same opinion that I am—that a more desirable man could not be appointed. I have also pleasure in moving that Sir Gershom Stewart, K.B.E., be appointed Vice-Chairman. (Applause.) The same remark applies to the acceptance of his name. I also propose that Mr. R. Chatterton Wilcox be elected Hon. Treasurer. (Applause.)

Mr. H. D. C. Jones seconded the resolution, and it was carried unanimously.

Mr. W. Adams Oram: I have much pleasure in proposing that the following gentlemen form the General Committee for the year 1924-1925: Viscount Inchepne, Rt. Hon. Sir John Jordan, P.C., G.C.M.G., etc., Lieut.-General Sir George Macdonogh, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., Sir Walter C. Hillier, K.C.M.G., C.B., Sir Alfred Dent, K.C.M.G., Sir Gershom Stewart, K.B.E., Sir Frederick Bourne, C.M.G., Major W. S. Nathan, C.M.G., Mr. F. Anderson, Mr. Byron Brennan, C.M.G., Mr. J. S. Bruce, Mr. George B. Dodwell, Mr. W. Fisher, Mr. J. S. Haskell, Mr. R. H. Hill, Mr. W. B. Kennett, Mr. H. D. C. Jones, Mr. H. H. Joseph, Mr. David Landale, Mr. L. N. Lee, Mr. H. A. J. Murray, Mr. C. H. Pearson, Mr. H. W. Robertson, Mr. D. C. Rutherford, Mr. Charles V. Sale, Mr. F. Salinger, Mr. H. G. Simms, Mr. H. A. Stewart, Mr. A. M. Townsend, Mr. A. G. Morey Weale, Mr. T. H. Whitehead, Mr. R. C. Wilcox, Mr. A. G. Wood.

Major R. B. Denny seconded the resolution, and it was carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN: That concludes the business of the meeting, and I thank you for your attendance.

Mr. D. C. Rutherford: Before we separate I should like to move a resolution, and this Court records its hearty appreciation of the services of Mr. Landale as Chairman of the Association for the last three years. (Applause.) Under the rules of the Association, this office can only be held for three years, and Mr. Landale has filled that position with considerable satisfaction to the Committee, and with very great advantage to the Association. I am sure that this resolution when it is duly seconded will be passed unanimously.

Mr. W. Fisher seconded the resolution, and the vote was unanimously recorded.

The CHAIRMAN: Gentlemen, I thank you very much for the kind vote which you have passed, and I can assure you that the work I have done for the Association has been a great pleasure to me. The proceedings then terminated.

THE ANNUAL REPORT.

FINANCE AND TREASURY.

In looking back upon Chinese affairs during the past year, it is difficult to see any material improvement in the political situation. Constant changes and general instability still continue to be the outstanding features both the Central and Provincial Governments. If anything, the power and influence of the Peking Government is more limited and restricted as regards internal affairs than was the case a year ago. The disunion and weakness of the Government has been accompanied by a continuance of unrest and disturbances throughout the country, in many cases involving foreign interests and security. The financial situation is beginning more and more strained as far as the credit of the Government is concerned. Typical instances of the uncompromising attitude of the Chinese Government may be noticed in the conditions claimed in connection with the retrocession of Weihaiwei. In spite of their formal undertaking to deal equitably with just claims for compensation arising out of the transfer and the liberal terms offered by H.M. Government, there is no evidence of reciprocity on the Chinese side. Apparently in political circles in China, for the time being, antagonism to foreign interests is looked upon as a safer bid for popularity amongst those sections upon which politicians rely for support rather than the cultivation of cordial relations with friendly Powers; but perhaps the course of events may show that this attitude has its disadvantages, and that it is not a very far-sighted policy in view of the dangerous situation in which is placed.

Finance.—In spite of the chaotic political conditions in the Provinces and a weak Central Government, the Maritime Customs Revenue was fully maintained, but with an effective 5 per cent. duty it would not have been unreasonable to expect a greater result than was actually achieved. Only the able administration of the great organisation and its power, so far, to control the Customs Revenue has enabled these results to be obtained, contrasting sharply with the obstruction and interference of provincial authorities that faced the collection of the Salt Revenue. A matter for criticism, however, as regards the administration of the Customs Revenue is the decision to apply the surplus to China's internal and domestic debts without regard to the claims of foreign creditors.

Extra-territoriality.—The greater the confusion and insecurity of foreign life and property in China, the more insistent becomes the demand of a section of foreign education Chinese to obtain some modification of the extra-territorial regime and secure jurisdiction over all foreigners. Amid the hopeless confusion the Peking Government is engaged in drawing up elaborate codes and regulations with a view to convincing "Foreign Powers" that China is now in a position to assume jurisdiction over their nationals and that they may safely abandon, or materially modify, the Treaty rights on which their trading operations have been conducted for so many years, and on which the security of their immense vested interests entirely depends. The issue of portentous volumes of legal enactments will carry little weight with any one acquainted with the situation in China. If China wishes to modify her present international status, her first duty is to put her house in order and then, following the example of the neighbouring Empire of Japan, to undergo a long course of preparation, not merely in remodelling her legislation, but in training officials who can be trusted to have it honestly enforced.

Opium.—The negotiations for the enforcement of the 1912 Convention continue to make slow progress at Geneva. The question is greatly complicated by the widespread recrudescence of opium cultivation in China. This presents a problem with which no outside influence can hope to cope, and unless some reform movement comes from within, of which there is little indication at present, it is to be feared that all the suppression work of previous years will have been done in vain, and that China's last condition will be no better than the first.

Railways.—The earnings of the Chinese Government Railways in 1923 were better than in the previous year. Military interference with the railways continued throughout the year to hinder their operation. The only new construction which has been undertaken has been the continuation by Belgian interests of the Lung Hai Railway.

CULTURAL RELIEF WORK.

NO MONOPOLY, BY JAPAN'S FOREIGN OFFICE.

CO-OPERATION WITH CHINA.

With reference to the cultural relief undertakings in China as projected by Japan, M. Douche, Director of the Asiatic Bureau of the Foreign Office, who is in charge of the said work states:—

"The fact that the Cultural Relief Office, which conducts the business relative to the undertakings in question, is affiliated with the Foreign Office has, it appears, incidentally given rise to the wrong impression that the Foreign Office is going to monopolize the undertakings. This is not, however, the case, the fact being that it is simply for the sake of convenience that the Foreign Office is in charge of the undertakings, because the works are being undertaken by a fund specially earmarked for that purpose and defrayed from the State coffers in accordance with the provisions of the Law for the Special Account. The Government is fully aware that the undertakings are of an important nature and ought to be conducted on a permanent basis. It has no intention whatsoever to monopolize the undertakings to itself, but it is under the belief that they ought to be conducted in compliance with the advice by an Advisory Council to be formed by a selected number of men, including a few Government officials, and has practically formed one.

"A certain section of the people apparently thinks that the undertakings are being projected in China, because China is at a lower stage of civilization as compared with Japan, and they are on this account not a little exasperated. The impression is also wrong. The proposed undertakings are to be undertaken 'en-garde' (China). It is true, and to capacious dissentients this may mean that the undertakings are being aimed at doing something by a country, which has a higher civilization, and in for a country which has not. This is, however, an absolutely useless discussion. Japan has never taken into account the question which of the two countries has the higher or the lower civilization. She bases the present project on the appreciation of the long-standing Chinese civilization, and it is her intention to help the Chinese people consolidate and further elevate the culture so far maintained by them. Japan has no intention whatsoever to conduct the proposed Laboratories and Museums, independently of China, but is determined to build and manage them in consultation with, and with the co-operation of China.

"The proposal that a Council of Delegates or an Advisory Council to be formed by Chinese and Japanese scholars and experts be established in China, in order to assist the authorities concerned by a presentation of views or advice as regards the conduct of business is being favourably considered. What ought to be taken into account is that the undertakings are still at the threshold, and the Tokyo Government has not as yet formed any definite plan. The necessity of China's co-operation is fully realized, and in order to achieve this end the Tokyo Government will in time exchange views with the Chinese people, so that the undertakings in question will be conducted in such a manner as to be satisfactory to both.

NAVAL NOTES.

Lieut. R. R. Lyle has been appointed to the flagship Hankow for duty with the China Squadron for Fleet physical and recreational duties from the date of joining. Lieut. Lyle was appointed a naval cadet in 1907, and reached his present rank in September, 1918. He specialised in physical training some years ago, and saw much service with destroyers during the late war.

Lieut.-Comdr. C. R. Thompson, who will join the Titanic at Hongkong, will be placed on duty with the submarines in the China Station, and of which he will have command. This appointment will have effect from September 1st next. Lieut.-Comdr. Thompson was employed in submarine working during the late war, and commanded the L24 on the China Station in 1920, so that he is no stranger to his coming duties.

Crown Leases.—It is greatly to be deplored that a satisfactory outcome of this matter has not been achieved. The Committee is led to believe that H.M. Government is determined on adhering to the scheme involving large payments by existing lessees before renewals can be granted.

Obituary.—In the death of Mr. Cundry, early in the present year, the Association sustained a severe blow, and the General Committee wish to record their deep sorrow at the loss of a colleague so closely identified with them in the work of the Association, since its foundation. To Sir Alfred Dent and Mr. Cundry the Association owes its inception in 1889. Of a large knowledge of the Chinese, always a friend of China, but by no means blind to her faults, Mr. Cundry was accustomed to voice his opinions with frankness and conviction, and having formed his opinion firmly adhered to it. He was a vigorous, terse and trenchant writer.

THE RETURN OF JAPAN'S OLYMPIC SWIMMERS.

ENTERTAINED AT THE VICTORIA RECREATION CLUB.

EXCITING SPORT ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Japanese Olympic swimmers, who are passing through Hongkong on their return to Japan, were on Saturday night the guests of the Victoria Recreation Club when a number of interesting swimming contests were arranged between the Olympiad swimmers and local swimmers.

The fête aroused considerable interest in Hongkong as there was prospect of exceedingly keen racing, our local swimmers being in exceptionally good form just now. Naturally with such enthusiasm it was only to be expected that every available seat at the fête would be taken up. Amongst those present were noticed: His Excellency the Governor (Sir R. E. Stubbs, K.C.M.G.), the Hon. Sir Claude Severn and Lady Severn, the Hon. Mr. P. H. Hodgson and the Misses Hongkong, Colonel Russell Brown, Colonel Butterworth and many members of the Japanese community including Mr. S. Takahashi (Consul-General for Japan).

As was only to be expected the visitors carried off all the events though our local swimmers put up a very keen exhibition and were by no means disgraced. In the 100 yards invitation race, Lyon and Johnstone came in second and third respectively. In the fifty yards invitation Hongkong representatives also obtained a second and third, Razavet and Noronha coming in the order named. Razavet's performance was highly creditable as he was only beaten for first place by a fifth of a second.

In the 200 yards event Lyon got placed third, whilst the team race provided a most exciting tussle and was without doubt the most interesting event of the night's sport. In this event the Hongkong men were only beaten by one second which was really a splendid performance when it is remembered that their opponents were placed fourth at the Olympiad.

In addition to the usual events for members there was an exhibition of fancy diving by Messrs. N. Duck, W. G. Urquhart and C. Mackenzie. No decisions were given in this event. There was also an interesting swimming match under water between two of the Japanese team. This was won by T. Ishida who swam 25 yards in 14 seconds.

RESULTS.

The results were as follows:—
100 Yards Invitation.—1. K. Takahashi; 2. D. Lyon; 3. J. Johnstone; 4. T. Ishida. Time: 56.2 seconds. Lyon's time was 58secs.
50 Yards Ladies (Breast Stroke).—1. Miss G. Ramsay; 2. Miss R. George; 3. Miss Bliss; 4. Miss R. Chue. Time: 45secs. (Miss Chue finished first, dead heat with Miss G. Ramsay, but was disqualified for taking her hand out of the water).
50 Yards Invitation.—1. K. Onoda; 2. G. Razavet; 3. E. Noronha; 4. T. Saitoh. Time: 23.15secs.; Razavet, 25.2secs.; Noronha 26.4secs.
50 Yards Girls (Breast Stroke).—1. M. Gourlay; 2. E. Allen; 3. P. Hunt; 4. B. George. Time: 50secs. (Miss George came in first, but was disqualified for using the side stroke).
50 Yards Boys Handicap (Back Stroke).—1. S. Gutins; 2. F. Zimmerman. Time: 44.4secs.
200 Yards Invitation.—1. T. Miyahata; 2. K. Takahashi; 3. D. Lyon. Time: 2mins. 17.5secs.; second, 2mins. 21.1secs.; Lyon's time was 2mins. 24secs.
50 Yards Members.—1. J. Kent; 2. J. Assumpcao. Time: 23.5secs.; Assumpcao, 29.4secs.
Team Race.—1. Japan: Onoda, Saitoh, Ishida, Miyahata, Takahashi; 2. V.I.C.: Johnstone, Razavet, Urquhart, Noronha, Lyon. Time: 2mins. 18.2secs.; V.I.C.: Noruchi (Coach), W. Logan, A. Silya Netto, R. H. B. Mitchell, I. Kimura, A. A. Alves, and A. McKirdy.

Official Timekeepers.—Messrs. J. Lyon, C. J. Cook, A. Silva Netto, A. A. Alves, W. Anderson, A. McKirdy and R. C. Mitchell.
Hon. Treasurer.—Mr. A. E. Alves.
Hon. Secretary.—Mr. R. C. Mitchell.
THE PRIZE DISTRIBUTION.

At the conclusion of the sporting events the prizes were distributed by Sir Claude Severn, Chairman of the Club. Prior to the distribution Sir Claude addressed the gathering. He expressed pleasure in giving himself and members of the V.I.C. to again welcome the Japanese Olympic team and joyfully referred to the extremely kind manner in which the typhoon was passing away from Hongkong, thus allowing them to enjoy such an excellent night's sport.

ALTERATION OF RULES.

Mr. W. E. Hollands, Hon. Secretary of the Hongkong Football Association writes:—

The following alterations to the Football Rules having been passed by the Football Association become operative this season:—

Rule 6.—The following footnote is added:—“It is not a breach of the law for a player to be in an offside position, but only when in that position he interferes with an opponent or with the play. If a player who is in an offside position advances towards an opponent, or the ball, and in so doing causes the play to be effected he should be penalised.”

Rule 10.—Delete from fourth sentence the words “corner kick.”

Law 11.—After the word “scored” inserted “from a corner kick or.”

Law 16 is altered by adding as the last sentence “A free kick shall be given for an infringement of this law.”

Law 17 is altered to delete from lines one and two “Laws 3, 6, 8, 10 or 16” and substituting “Laws 5, 6, 8 or 10.”

The footnote to rule 11 explains itself, the word “corner kick” being deleted from Rule 10 and added to Law 11 now allows a goal to be scored direct from this kick. Law 16 now definitely states that a free kick shall be given for an infringement. The alteration to Law 17 by deleting Law 16 is done, because the latter law now definitely states a “free kick” shall be given for an infringement, but a goal cannot be scored direct from this kick.

WATER POLO.

LAST MATCH OF THE LEAGUE SEASON.

The last water polo match of the Garrison League season took place on Friday night between the League winners (8th Heavy Battery, R.G.A.) and the East Surrey Regiment, the former winning by 5 goals to 1.

Mrs. Butterworth presented the cup and medals to the League champions and the runners-up, whose names were as under:—

Winners.—8th Heavy Battery, R.G.A.: Mr. Hitchings (Captain), Mr. Palford, Mr. Collier, Mr. Newham, Mr. Mitchell, and Field.

Runners-up.—White Wing Surrey: Sgt. Bird (Captain), Corporal Rumberstone and Major B. Hannon, Mr. Baker and Messrs. Cole and Cornwall.

Cheers for the acting General Officer Commanding (Col. Russell Brown) concluded the proceedings.

BASEBALL.

NO MATCH ON SATURDAY.

Owing to the heavy rain on Saturday afternoon, the match due to be played on Happy Valley between the Hongkong Baseball Club and the South China Athletic Association was postponed.

Sir Claud went on to say that when the Japanese team was last in Hongkong, Mr. W. Logan had promised them on their return that the V.I.C. would give them a run for their money. That the V.I.C. boys had done so, all would agree. That promise had been thoroughly fulfilled. He personally as well as others was glad that he had been present and that the Japanese had timed their arrival on a Saturday so that they had been able to witness such a fine exhibition of swimming. He especially wished to congratulate Mr. Takahashi on his victory in the 100 yards event when he lowered the bath record by two seconds. At the same time he felt that Mr. Lyon's defeat would only serve to encourage him to break his own record before the end of the season.

Continuing Sir Claud referred to the team race, which had produced one of the finest tussles one could wish to see. It was a close race from start to finish and the result, in favour of the Japanese by the narrow margin of one second showed that Hongkong possessed some fine swimmers.

Concluding his remarks, Sir Claud expressed pleasure it had been to have the presence of H.E. the Governor, who had evinced the keenest interest in the contest. Finally he congratulated the Committee on the very excellent arrangements made for the fête and on the promptitude with which the various events were carried out.

Mr. I. Sawada, Manager of the Japanese team, suitably replied. He returned thanks for the cordial manner in which his team had been received. He hoped the day would soon arrive when not only a Hongkong team but British teams from other places would visit Japan and give the Japanese an opportunity to act as hosts.

He took the opportunity of giving an eye-witness account of how Abraham won the 100 metres in France.

Cheers for the contending teams, H.E. the Governor, Sir Claud and Lady Severn, and Mr. Mitchell brought the ceremony to a close.

The night's entertainment was concluded by dancing to the strains of the Black Cat Orchestra.

THE TYPHOON.

WEEKEND SPORT SPOILED.

Local weekend trippers and sportsmen had their plans for the weekend entirely upset on Saturday morning, when at 10.40 o'clock the local No. 1 typhoon signal was hoisted and a warning issued at the same time that a severe typhoon had been located within 120 miles of Lat. 17deg. (N.) and Long. 116deg. (E.) moving in a W.N.W. direction.

During the early part of the morning there was no indication of a typhoon about. Harbour conditions appeared normal, junks and small craft making no signs of going to shelter. There was a light breeze blowing and with the exception of a couple of heavy showers of brief duration, there was nothing to convince the layman that there was a typhoon about.

At 11.29 a.m. a further warning was issued from the Royal Observatory which stated “that pressure has increased very considerably at Manila and slightly to moderately elsewhere. The typhoon entered the China Sea last night and is probably situated to the North of the Macleod Bank, moving W.N.W.”

It remained fine until 1.29 p.m. when there was a squall, accompanied by rain which lasted about 10 minutes. June before 3 p.m. a series of heavy showers fell and put an end to any faint hope of carrying through with the usual weekly baseball and lawn bowls matches.

At 5.30 p.m. the Royal Observatory issued a further warning stating the position of the typhoon to be within 120 miles of Lat. 19 (N.), Long. 114 (E.) moving W.N.W., which meant that it had reached a position directly East of Hainan and that if it continued on the same track it would enter the coast somewhere near Kwong-chow-wan.

In the afternoon small craft began to hurry for shelter and yesterday morning not one was to be seen in the harbour. During the night a number of vessels left their berths for shelter in Kowloon Bay and throughout yesterday the harbour bore a deserted look. The homeward bound P. & O. steamer Mantua, which left her moorings at noon on Saturday remained at anchor off Taikoo till yesterday afternoon.

Just about 1 a.m. yesterday the typhoon signal was changed, No. 4 (two green lights and a white) replacing the No. 1 signal, which meant that a gale was expected from the West.

The harbour was choppy yesterday and there were squalls which made it dangerous for small craft.

Yesterday at noon a representative of the Daily Press was informed at the Royal Observatory, that there was practically little or no danger of the typhoon striking Hongkong. The squalls of wind would probably last a few hours and were then moderate.

At 4.22 p.m. the position of the typhoon was given as Lat. 19 (N.) Long 111 (E.) and at about 6.30 p.m. the No. 4 signal was finally taken down. Soon after it was announced that the typhoon was near or over Hainan and moving W. or W.N.W.

A PROHIBITED ANCHORAGE.

THE NEW CABLE RESERVE.

A Harbour Office notification states that on Saturday a new cable reserve area was established between the City of Victoria of the South end of Kowloon Peninsula. The new area is declared a prohibited anchorage and no ship, junk or other craft of any description shall anchor within the new cable reserve area.

The boundaries of the new reserve are as follows:—

On the West.—By a line from the Green Light on the Hongkong Ferry Pier at Kowloon) 225deg. to the Green Light on the Pier at the end of Queen Victoria Street.

On the South.—By the foreshore.

On the East.—By a line from the Time Ball Tower (at Kowloon) 225deg. to the Cenotaph (Victoria).

On the North.—By the foreshore.

Ships, junks and other craft may use the buoys within this area but will be held responsible for any damage that they may do to the cables.

Ships going alongside Douglas Pier are permitted to drop their anchor in the fore and aft line of this Pier provided that such anchor is not dropped more than 200 feet from the end of the Pier.

HOW NOT TO TREAT A WIFE.

HUSBAND'S ALLEGED BRUTALITY.

A Chinese in police custody charged with having poured kerosene over his wife with intent to set her on fire. When he appeared before Mr. R. E. Lindell at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, it was further stated that he had studded a piece of cardboard with brass tacks for use in torturing the woman.

BOXER INDEMNITY AND RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.

WU PEI FU REITERATES HIS PROPOSAL.

Marshal Wu Pei Fu has addressed a lengthy telegram to the National Road Construction Association reiterating his proposal to appropriate the returned Boxer indemnities for the construction of railways, says the Chung Mei Service. This wire dated the 6th reads:

I have several times submitted my proposal to the Central Government, and explained my reasons for my firm attitude in the following manner:

In the first place, as education is a long developing enterprise of the nation so the educational funds should be derived from a financial source which will never be exhausted. The Boxer indemnity is a limited sum of money, and if deposited in banks, the interest the Government would receive yearly would be not much. It is a better plan to devote the indemnity funds to the construction of railways, especially the Szechuan-Hankow and the Hankow-Canton lines, from which a sum far greater than several tens of millions of dollars will be got. In this way, not only the railway administration in China will be improved yearly, but the educational funds will be increased considerably every year.

Secondly, it is not safe to deposit the indemnity funds in the banks, not even in foreign banks, which fact may be proved by the bankruptcy of the Banque Industrielle de Chine. In order to safeguard the foundation funds of national education, I strongly favour the appropriation of the returned indemnity funds for constructing railways, the receipts of which are to be devoted to educational expenses.

Thirdly, it is universally recognised that every enterprise of the nation should be developed at the same time. The undeveloped communication is responsible for the backward state of the nation. Since the employment of the returned Boxer funds for the building of railways has not affected national education, while on the other hand can promote the civilisation of the country, I maintain to enforce my proposal.

It is also pointed out in the wire that there is no fear for the mismanagement of the indemnity funds, since an Inspecting Commission, to be organized by officials appointed by the Government and educationalists will be established, and that no fear need be entertained that the protocol Powers will not agree or will submit conditions, if the returned indemnity funds are to be appropriated for constructing railways, because the funds are not in the nature of a foreign loan.

In conclusion the Loyal War Lord asked the Association to try hard to get his proposal realised at an early date.

WHY MORE ROADS—AN ANSWER.

Chinese merchants in Manila in a telegram to the Government support the devotion of the funds to railway construction for the following reasons:—

1.—The construction of roads will facilitate the plans of disarmament by turning the disbanded soldiers into labourers.

2.—It will provide employment for those who choose to make an honest living. It will also help to reduce the number of outlaws.

3.—The extension of the means of communication will invariably hasten the development of industry and commerce.

4.—Better means of communication will yield more money to the Central Government which is free to set aside a certain amount for the encouragement of education.

THE FLOOD DISASTERS IN CHINA.

PEKING, August 15th.

The latest information received from Shantung shows that the break in the Grand Canal dyke has flooded over one hundred and fifty villages already in the Enhsien area, affecting at least sixty thousand people whose crops are totally destroyed.

Two reassuring reports have been received from different parts of the country by the China International Famine Relief Commission.

The first information is from Foochow and points out that although the damage in the district of Yuchi was estimated as amounting to over twelve million dollars this figure has not yet been verified and may prove to have been exaggerated. Other districts, however, have not yet reported so that the situation still remains uncertain until eye witnesses accounts become available.

A telegram has also been received from the Commission's representative in Hankow in which he states that the Yangtze river is steadily falling and has already receded three feet below its highest point this year. It will be remembered that at one time it had flooded the river front of most of the Concessions and considerable anxiety was being felt as to its further progress.

WEST RIVER TRADE.

Though complaints are heard from all parts of China of the difficulties under which trade is carried on nowadays, there is probably no area where the handicaps are more severe than in the region of the West River. A glance through the Reports of the Commissioners of Customs at Samshui and Wuchow for last year reveals a most deplorable state of affairs. Commercial men are well aware of the conditions that have been prevailing in this region for so long, and these annual reports of the Commissioners of Customs serve only to remind them of familiar facts. If we could feel that the picture of misgovernment the Reports present would make its due appeal to responsible authorities, we could begin to entertain some hope of improvement. Unhappily there is nothing in a general survey of the political conditions in Kwangtung at the present time to encourage any belief that these handicaps to trade will speedily disappear. On the contrary, there seems every possibility of a continuance of military operations with all the disturbances and handicaps to trade that have marked them in recent years. The feature of these Reports to which we would like to draw particular attention is the evidence they afford of the growing dependence of trade upon the protection afforded by foreign flags.

We read of British steamers, escorted by British gunboats, being allowed to go through the fighting line when Chinese steamers dared not go up the river, and in the circumstances it is not surprising to read that "many steamers, hitherto Chinese, have changed their flag." "This," says the Commissioner at Samshui, "is natural in view of the treatment accorded by the military authorities to the Chinese flag (the s.s. Kwongwei, for example, was commandeered for military service on the East River since July last year and had not been released when the report was written, in March this year), together with the inconvenience from the searching parties of the several Examination Bureaux established on the West River by the Canton Government, an inconvenience suffered to a greater degree by Chinese than by foreign-flag vessels." The Commissioner at Wuchow writes: "Frequent interruption of traffic and the commandeering of Chinese vessels for military service has been responsible for the low ebb of shipping trade. A comparison of the 1923 figures under the various flags with the corresponding figures for 1922 shows that the shipping under various foreign flags has increased at the expense of that under the Chinese flag. 'Bitter' experience undergone by Chinese shipping during recent times, through the constant commandeering of vessels for military service, have taught the Chinese ship owners to seek protection under foreign flags, and on the re-opening of the port in the third quarter of the year many Chinese steamers, one after another, transferred their nationality to either British or Portuguese. A conspicuous instance of this was the sale of the Wuchow Chinese Navigation Company—a long-established Chinese concern, which owned four steamers and several motor-boats and had been doing a prosperous business—to a Hongkong syndicate under the style of the Yew Hing Company. Two well-known stern wheelers, the Szeinun and the Nanning, have also gone under the Portuguese flag, and most of the Hongkong tugs and many of the motor-boats which plied on the river during the latter part of the year sailed under foreign flags." The Commissioner at Samshui, writing of the extensive commandeering of the class of vessel which operates under Inland Steam Navigation Rules, says: "If the present conditions last, it is not impossible to anticipate a time when trade under Inland Waters Steam Navigation Rules will be confined to a few launches flying a foreign flag." Mr. KEMMER remarks that "the heavy 'protection fees' that have to be paid by all civilian launches to the various military stations springing up anywhere along the waterways and for no apparent reason, like mushrooms in a night—have caused prices of launch and raft-borne commodities to rise considerably—the price of firewood, for instance, has increased in the last 18 months 100 per cent—and render trading as much a gamble as the risk of being commandeered renders its precarious." It is no wonder that here is this tendency for the Chinese flag to disappear from the waterways of Kwangtung. In all the circumstances it is surprising that the Commissioners are able to show improved trade statistics. This may be explained perhaps in a variety of ways, but there is a significant remark in the Wuchow Commissioner's report which may well be quoted in this connection. It is this: "There is no gainsaying the fact that the prosperity of the opium business accounts to a large extent for the sudden revival of trade in the third and fourth quarters of the year."

BUSINESS STRIKE AT CANTON.

[FROM OUR CHINESE CORRESPONDENT.]

Following the suspension of business on the part of the native bankers and the rice merchants in Canton, as a protest against the Government which is enforcing the circulation of unsecured paper money on the market, the other shops were compelled to close their doors yesterday (Sunday, August 24th). The rice shops had to close on account of mercantile of Dr. Sun insisting on paying for rice with the notes of the Central Bank, which are regarded as worthless. The troops on August 21st forcibly seized two junks full of rice at Canton saying that if the owners would like to have anything in return they might take the notes or nothing. Since the 22nd of August, all shops have been but partly open, being ready to close any moment upon intrusion of mercenaries stationed in the business sections to guard against possible opposition of the Canton Merchants Volunteers.

Mr. Ching Chien, Secretary of War, who had issued the permit to the Canton Merchants Volunteers to import arms but whose act was later over-ruled by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, has declined to attend office further, as a silent protest against the action of his chief. It is understood that other departmental chiefs of Dr. Sun's General Headquarters, including General Hsu Shao Tsung of the Department of Internal Affairs and Procurator-General Loo Hing Yuan of the South China Supreme Court, have withdrawn from Canton.

In volunteer circles it is believed that the Yunnanese, the Huannese, and the Kwansies may not necessarily listen to the order of Dr. Sun Yat Sen in his attempt to disarm the volunteers. They began, it is said, to realize that if Dr. Sun should fail, that they will have a hard time to escape from Kwangtung, as their dialects will betray them.

Since the 22nd of August, the regular service of junks and tow-boats plying between Canton and inland towns has been interrupted.

The strike started from the inland towns of the province on August 22nd, and will be in full swing in Canton City proper on the 25th. The Cantonese are demanding that the arms and ammunition for the import of which the Canton Merchants Volunteer Corps have taken out legal permits but which Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Kuomintang Government has illegally seized shall be unconditionally returned to their proper owners; that the amalgamation of the provincial volunteer units, the inauguration of which Dr. Sun has prohibited, shall henceforth not be further interfered with; and that all orders and instructions for the arrest of the Commandants of the Volunteer Corps, leaders of the people's movement charged of rebellion against the administration of Dr. Sun and the Kuomintang, shall be unconditionally and immediately withdrawn.

As far as the volunteers are concerned, the opposition will be passive, for the time being, while the people at large will cease paying taxes or supplying the needs of Dr. Sun and his party.

The merchants of Canton, Fatsan, and other cities, have advised the newspapers in Canton to stop delivery, as the recent order of Dr. Sun Yat-sen and the Canton Police to the Press to publish no more notices from the members and officers of the Volunteer Corps and imposing a strict censorship on news, mail, and telegrams have rendered local publications but mouth-pieces of the pro-Sun party, and a prostitution of local opinion.

Since August 22nd, regular water traffic between Canton and the inland towns has been curtailed by voluntary action of the "managements of the tow-boats and junks."

A man who on Friday stole a watch and chain, a pair of spectacles and a jacket from a member of the crew of a Canton steamer, was sent to gaol with hard labour for four weeks at the Central Magistracy on Saturday.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]LONDON AGREEMENT.
DISCUSSED BY FRANCE AND GERMANY.

DEBATE IN CHAMBER.

PARIS, August 23rd.

In the debate in the Chamber the Socialist, M. Blum, opined that the Conference marked the condemnation of the occupation of the Ruhr and the bankruptcy of Poincaré. He declared the Premier had brought back peace with honour.

M. Briand thought the real danger lay in the cessation of control of armaments in Germany and regarded the renewal of contact with the Germans as a guarantee of peace upon which he congratulated M. Herriot.

General Nollet replying to a deputy who had fears of the possibility of the evacuation of the Rhineland, said the control of the Essen factories would continue after the evacuation of the Ruhr and would only be abandoned after the Control Commissions had surrendered their powers.

On the resumption of the debate M. Herriot, intervening, asked the Chamber to take into account the attitude of Britain, who largely opposed the execution of the Dawes plan owing to a fear of unemployment. Replying to a deputy M. Herriot said it was not exact to say the French Government had undertaken to communicate to the British Government all the details of the Franco-German commercial negotiations. M. Herriot explained that the principles of such a commercial agreement were agreed upon in London and he had so informed the British Government.

General Nollet remarked that Mr. MacDonald had undertaken, if Germany, by a certain time did not satisfy the commission of control under the Dawes scheme, Britain would join France and the Allies in compelling Germany to carry out the Treaty of Versailles.

M. Herriot said a Germano-Allied agreement was indispensable in order to avoid economic conflict.

The Chamber at the conclusion of the discussion on the London Agreement passed a vote of confidence by 336 to 24.

Herr Stresemann, in a fighting speech in the Reichstag, strongly criticised the attitude of the Nationalists and declared that regarding the forthcoming Franco-German commercial negotiations no sort of secret agreement existed.

REICHSTAG PROCEEDINGS.

The evacuation of Offenbach and Appenweier constituted a great success for the German delegation. He vouched for M. Herriot's character and believed that London, if not the final goal, might prove the beginning of a movement resulting in the collaboration of all nations. The speech was received with loud cheers from the Socialists and the Centre and hisses from the Communists and Extreme Nationalists.

BLESSING OR CURSE?

Herr Marx paid a tribute to Mr. MacDonald's impartiality at London. The decisions of the Conference would undoubtedly be serious burden on Germany, but they marked progress, compared with the present state of affairs. The Government did not consider the settlement as final, but would do its utmost to effect a speedy evacuation of the Ruhr and other sanctioned areas. He concluded that the Reichstag was confronted with terrible responsibility; its decision would be a blessing or a curse to Germany.

As a result of the statements by the German members of the London Conference in the Reichstag a swing of opinion among the moderate section of the German National Party is noticeable and there is now a prospect of the Dawes bill finding the necessary majority in the Reichstag this week and of the London protocol being signed on Thursday.

THE MACDONALD LETTER.

SUPPORT FROM M. HERRIOT.

PARIS, August 23rd.

On the resumption of the debate in the Chamber, M. Herriot stated that Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's letter regarding the evacuation of the Ruhr was handed to him in London before the pact was concluded, before Mr. MacDonald's speech and before the Ruhr question was settled. M. Herriot pointed out that the Germans and French had submitted their own viewpoints on the Ruhr question and Mr. MacDonald quite rightly submitted the British viewpoint. Therefore, it was unjust to interpret Mr. MacDonald's action as a wrongful proceeding or as a disavowal of the agreements reached in London.

PARIS, August 23rd.

A report on the dangers of chemical warfare, drawn up by the League of Nations' sub-committee, concludes that while poison gas is still a real danger the risk of wholesale slaughter by means of microbes is unlikely in the near future. This is deduced from detailed statements by leading experts who agree as to the difficulty of spreading microbes and the efficiency of preventatives. Conversely, poison gases are still a terrible menace. Thirty were known at the outbreak of the war; now a thousand have been discovered. Stress is laid on the general ignorance of the people of the possibilities of poison gas in warfare against civilians.

THE SEARCH.

NEW YORK, August 23rd.

While three American cruisers were cautiously beating the coast outside Iceland, near Cape Farewell, for Locatelli, two messages which indicate the possibility of Locatelli having landed on an isolated Greenland fjord. Admiral Magruder declares his intention of remaining as long as there is the slightest hope of finding Locatelli, and has summoned a tanker to replenish the oil-fuel of the cruisers. Lieutenant Marescalchi, who made preliminary arrangements for Locatelli in Iceland, says that if the aeroplane was forced to alight at sea the fliers are safe, as the machine is seaworthy, of all-metal construction, and is supplied with food and water for six to ten days. Lieut. Marescalchi believes there are two pilots and two mechanics aboard, and says the chief danger is that the aviators may have crashed into a mountain in the fog or wrecked on the ice if forced down on rough water.

Lieutenant Smith reports that an aeroplane was heard by the inhabitants of Greenland after the second American cruiser had landed. Equinox are searching for Locatelli. The cruisers Richmond and Releigh, and the Danish steamer Islandfalk continue cruising and are using searchlights by night and smokeclouds by day as a guide to the missing airman.

JAPANESE EARTHQUAKE

REVIEW OF PRESENT CONDITIONS.

TOKYO, August 22nd.

With the approach of the anniversary of the earthquake on September 1st, a review of the conditions as they are to-day has been prepared by the Home Department, according to which the City of Tokyo has been not permanently but temporarily rehabilitated to the extent of nearly 70 per cent. that is, of the total houses destroyed in the early days of last September, 200,000 have been rebuilt.

In the districts of Asakusa, Akasaka, Koishikawa and Yotsuya, which were only partially devastated, all the houses have been rebuilt, while in the other districts where the destruction was much more general, 60 per cent. to 80 per cent. have been re-erected.

It is expected that the temporary rehabilitation of the city will be completed by the end of the year, when the permanent rehabilitation will be started. This is expected to take at least a decade, but it is thought that in five years' time Tokyo will again assume its pre-earthquake aspect.

ARGENTINIAN WORLD FLIGHT.

ZANNI'S NEW MACHINE.

TOKYO, August 22nd.

Major Zanni continues his flight with the spare machine which arrived at Kobe to-day on board the Kanm Maru from London.

The machine is to be immediately trans-shipped, probably to the N.Y.K. Fukue Maru, which leaves Kobe to-morrow and will reach Haiphong, whither Major Zanni has order it to be sent, within a fortnight.

These plans were announced by M. Garcia Urriburu, the Argentine Minister at Tokyo, who, to-day, received a cable from Major Zanni informing him of the machine's whereabouts and asking for its urgent shipment to Haiphong.

Major Zanni cabled "Aeroplane crashed but determined to continue."

Mr. P. Murphy, Major Zanni's advance man, who is waiting at Tientsin for orders, has been directed to continue laying out the route via Mukden, Pyenyang, Taiku, Hiroshima, Osaka and Tokorozawa.

Whether the flight across the Pacific will be attempted will not be settled until Major Zanni has arrived at Tokyo, but M. Garcia Urriburu and the Japanese officials and American airmen who assisted in the American flight are of the opinion that the season is too late.

Which of us is likely to go down to his grave and feel that all the hopes of his youth have been fulfilled?—Lord Dalfour.

I can see nothing subversive in the idea of Mrs. Thomas Atkins, wife of Mr. Thomas Atkins, coming to live next door to Lady Vere de Vere.—Mr. Thrill, M.P.
